READING COMPREHENSION

TRICKS & TIPS

MASTERING THE ART OF EFFECTIVE READING

1. Do not read the passage first

Always go through the questions first and then the passage. This will prepare you to focus on the things you need to look in the passage.

2. Do not overemphasize trivialities

You just need to get a hang of the main point and not the examples. Comprehend the overall flow and structure .

3. Do not memorize

Understanding the flow, structure and the main points in the passage should be your priority.

4. Do not over-emphasize on vocabulary skills for RCs

Do not put yourself under stress in this area, and while reading the passage, make sure that you understand the gist of the passage and do not get stuck on particular words.

5. Do not think the correct option would come from outside the passage

The right answer is always based on the information given within the passage. Do not focus on any of the options that distract you from the passage.

6. Opening and Closing paragraphs require extra focus

Questions such as the main idea question are based on the overall subject of the passage, and majority of the times the answer for this question type lies in the first and last paragraph of the passage. Ensure you derive the maximum possible information from these paragraphs.

7. Constantly question yourself while reading the passage

In order to maintain your concentration while reading, make sure that some basic questions keep playing at the back of your mind: What is the author's main point? Why is the author writing this? How has the author chosen to convey his main point? How has the author organized his material?
